LITERARY RIGHTS TO PRIVATE PAPERS

Some of the papers reproduced on the microfilm referred to in this and other guides of the same series may have been of private origin. The fact of their seizure is not believed to divest their original owners of any literary property rights in them. Anyone, therefore, who publishes them in whole or in part without permission of their authors may be held liable for infringement of such literary property rights.

THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION (AHA)
COMMITTEE FOR THE STUDY OF WAR DOCUMENTS

GUIDES TO GERMAN RECORDS MICROFILMED AT ALEXANDRIA, VA.

This is part of a series of guides prepared by the American Historical Association listing records microfilmed at Alexandria, Va., by the American Historical Association Microfilming Project.

An American Committee for the Study of War Documents was established in 1955 as a private group of scholars interested in documentary research and especially in the microfilming of records of foreign origin kept in American depositories. In 1956, the American Committee became a committee of the American Historical Association. Its present Chairman (1959) is Professor Oron J. Hale, University of Virginia, who was preceded by Dean Reginald H. Phelps, Harvard University, and Professor Lynn M. Case of the University of Pennsylvania. An initial Ford Foundation grant and additional funds provided by the Old Dominion Foundation enabled the Committee to undertake the cataloguing and microfilming of declassified German records in the custody of the World War II Records Division of the National Archives (previously TAGO, Departmental Records Branch) at Alexandria, Virginia.

The plans for screening and microfilming of these materials were prepared by a Subcommittee on Microfilming under the Chairmanship to the end of 1956 of Professor E. Malcolm Carroll, Duke University, and his successor, Dr. Fritz T. Epstein, The Library of Congress. 1 [Professor Gerhard L. Weinberg of the University of Kentucky directed the microfilming team in Alexandria in 1956/7 which is now under the supervision of Dr. Dagmar Horna Perman.]

2 [The present guide describes a complete record group filmed by the Microfilming Project of the AHA Committee. Since the project is not yet complete, the guide to some record groups will appear in installments.]

The American Historical Association expresses its appreciation for the cooperation given to its Committee for the Study of War Documents by the staffs of the National Archives, especially its World War II Records Division, as well as the U.S. Department of the Army.

P R E F A C E

This Guide is one of a series of finding aids describing those declassified seized German records deposited at the World War II Records Division, National Archives, that have been microfilmed by the Microfilming Project of the Committee for the Study of War Documents of the American Historical Association. The Guide contains the text of data sheets identifying records filmed. A copy of the data sheet has been filmed as a target sheet at the beginning of each roll of film.

This Guide covers 61 rolls of film of records of Walter Luetgebrune, Dr. Theo Morell and Karl Haushofer assembled in one record group. Rolls 1-33 contain the papers of Walter Luetgebrune, a lawyer handling German political cases in the Weimar period. Rolls 34-45 include the papers of Dr. Theo Morell, personal physician of Hitler. Rolls 46-61 cover the papers of General Karl Haushofer, a geopolitician and personal friend of Rudolf Hess. (For other Haushofer records see also Guide No. 6).

The terms "Serial" and "Roll" in this Guide refer to sequence of the film. The "Item" number is the identification symbol on the original folder within the captured records collection. "Provenance" indicates, where ascertainable, the archival origin of the documents whose description follows. The symbol "FT" means that the folder has been filmed throughout, the symbol "FS" denotes that the folder has been filmed selectively. "1st Frame" gives the frame number of the first page of the folder. Every exposure has been given a frame number consecutively throughout the filming operation. The "Notes" provide a general idea of the nature of the materials but should not be taken as exhaustive descriptions. When the German file number could be ascertained, it has been included.

The original records are located in the World War II Records Division, National Archives, Alexandria, Va., under Record Group 1041. The microfilms are deposited in the National Archives, Washington 25, D.C., as microcopy T-253, and should be requested by adding to "T 253" the roll numbers.

NOTE: Rolls 1-32 and R-33 of T-253 contain the papers of Dr. Walter Luetgebrune, noted lawyer in German political cases in the Weimar period. These files were found in bad condition; an effort was made to put them in order, but many of the folders are obviously not in their original form. All the material is of great interest. Newspapers, clippings, fugitive publications, and similar items have been included in the film as they are often unavailable elsewhere. Attention is called to the miscellaneous folders at the end; they contain information on many of the cases covered by other files. Miscellaneous folder 13 contains an old inventory of the records.

This collection has been filmed in its entirety with the following exceptions: duplicates, 27 folders of purely private cases (perjury, murder, fraud, etc.), and miscellaneous folder 4 containing purely private matters pertaining to Luetgebrune's home. All the material filmed is on open film except for miscellaneous folder 1 which is in the "R" category.

Luetgebrune; Beerfelde-Lichnowsky folder 1. Luetgebrune's file on various cases involving Hanns Georg von Beerfelde, accused of attempted treason for spreading material based on the Lichnowsky memorandum on German foreign policy before World War I; for attacks on the government; and for the distribution of leaflets connected with the munitions strike. Luetgebrune was defense attorney; the cases involve Oberst Nicolai. 1918-19.

Luetgebrune's file on the case of August Wilhelm Silgradt, Chefredakteur of the Bergisch-Märkische Zeitung, 1923-24. Silgradt was accused of slandering Severing in matters connected with the Schlageter case. An extensive file of newspaper clippings on the matter is included.

Files of a case Paul Rohde v. Firma Otto Wolff concerning the sale of the Sächsische Gusstahlwerke Dohlen-Aktien, 1930-33. Involves the Vereinigte Stahlwerke and the Deutsche Bank und Disconto-Gesellschaft.

Personal correspondence of Luetgebrune, 1925; and a file on his income tax troubles, 1921-22.

NOTE: Rolls 34-44 and R-45 of T-253 contain the papers of Dr. Theo Morell, Leibarzt des Führers. Most of the documents deal with Morell's practice and the various factories he took over or influenced. There is extensive documentation on his efforts to push his products and his correspondence with government and Party officials in the furtherance of his widespread activities. There are also many letters and appeals to him for intervention and help. References to Hitler are few and widely scattered. There are frequent discussions of the health of other high officials.

The collection of Morell papers has been filmed as a whole with the exception of a few books, blank forms, and advertising circulars.

The medical records of Hitler alluded to in the later editions of Trevor-Roper's The Last Days of Hitler are not in this collection; it must, therefore, be assumed that the collection does not represent all the Morell papers that came into Allied hands at the end of the war.

Correspondence between Morell and his Berlin clinic and various other individuals, 1943-44. Various medical matters. Officials who were patients. Purchase of equipment.

Correspondence and other material, 1942-45. Business affairs of chemical and medical concerns controlled by Morell, primarily the Kosoluper Farbenfabriken.

Correspondence, 1941-43. Much of this concerns M's patients, some of it deals with his research and business affairs.

NOTE: Rolls 46-60 and R-61 of T-253 contain papers of General Karl Haushofer, a geopolitician and personal friend of Rudolf Hess. These records pertain to Haushofer's career, his relations with Hess and other leading National Socialists, and his concern with German propaganda and work with German minorities abroad. There is extensive and important documentation on Haushofer's activities in connection with the Deutsche Akademie München (for records of the Deutsche Akademie München see T-82, Serials 1-27A and 194) and with the Volksbund für das Deutschtum im Ausland (for records of the Volksbund für das Deutschtum im Ausland see T-81, Serials 267, 274, 278, 282 and 300-303). There is also information of significance on the activities of Haushofer's two sons, Albrecht and Heinz (Albrecht was killed by the Nazis in 1945).

All the records of political significance have been filmed. Omitted from filming have been large parts of the Haushofer library, much other printed material (primarily reprints of articles sent to Haushofer by the authors), and clippings and other material collected by Haushofer in the preparation of his numerous publications. Some private correspondence and personal papers, such as house repair bills, have also been omitted.

Code names and initials are frequently used in the correspondence. Rudolf Hess is referred to by his initials, as "Der Freund" and as "Tomodachi" of "T". "M" stands for Minke, "B" for Behrendt, "L" for Lorenz.

Other private papers of Haushofer have been filmed in T-82, Serials 147, 189-191.

Copy of a lecture by Carl Wölffel, "Wo stehen wir? Was tun? Strategische Obersätze zur deutschen Wirtschaftsschlacht," 23 May 1934, including misstatements such as that Bethmann Hollweg caused Germany to lose World War I by his mistaken strategy in 1918.

Probably dates from about 1934-35. The last page or two of the manuscript are missing.

A list of Haushofer's reviews in the Zeitschrift für Geopolitik, 1937-39. See HC 913d.

"Tagebuch literarischer Arbeiten." A list of works by M. Haushofer, presumably Karl Haushofer's father, written or published in 1856-1906.

"Mitteilungen des China-Instituts," 1941, Nummer 1-6 (als Manuskript gedruckt). Includes the Tätigkeitsbericht des China-Instituts über das Geschäftsjahr vom 1. April 1940 bis 31. März 1941.

"Geopolitica." A series of papers by Haushofer. Included are a lecture on the campaign against Poland in 1939; correspondence with ~~Hilfskomitee~~ of the Vowinkel Verlag, 1940; lecture on the occupation of Norway; lecture on the campaign in the West in 1940; and other material.

"Südosten." A highly interesting memorandum (carbon copy with hand-written corrections) by a national socialist Sudeten German, probably written in 1934, about the past, present, and future development of the political movements among the Sudeten Germans. Information on the Volkssportler-Prozess, the background of Henlein, relations between various factions of the Sudeten Germans and with the German government. The annexes referred to in the manuscript have not been found.

Correspondence of Karl Haushofer and his sons Albrecht and Heinz, 1922-40. Includes some interesting correspondence with Rudolf Hess; a carbon of an undated memorandum "Vorschlag einer Lösung des Falles Steinacher" (presumably related to the pushing out of Steinacher in connection with the Nazification of the Verband für das Deutschtum im Ausland); "Nachwuchs der Wissenschaft," 1939; undated memoranda on Yugoslavia, the German-Hungarian border, the German-Swiss border "für den Fall eines Akutwerdens schweizerischer Probleme," and parts of early drafts of "Gedanken zur Friedensordnung" (see HC 833).

A selection of documents apparently culled from the files of Albrecht Haushofer and grouped in this folder. Since Albrecht Haushofer had been arrested by the Nazis and was shot just before the end of the war, it would appear likely that these papers had been in the custody of his father and were found together with them. Included are documents of great interest: carbon copy of a "Denkschrift, Gedanken zur Friedensordnung" submitted to Staatssekretär Weizsäcker in November 1941 with the request to consider submitting it to Hitler (includes some pretty wild schemes). A memo on a conference between Albrecht Haushofer and Hess on 8 Sept. 1940 about the possibility of peace with England. An authorization for Albrecht Haushofer to fly to the Führerhauptquartier on 12 May 1941 (in connection with Hess flight). A memorandum of April 1937 "Deutschland und die Kolonien," with the Vermerk "Denkschrift für A.A. (Rahn)." Initialled copy of a memorandum on "Englische Beziehungen und die Möglichkeit ihres Einsatzes" of 12 May 1941 written for Hitler in connection with the Hess flight; original of Nuremberg document PS-1671. A "Niederschrift für Hess, Frühjahr 1934. Gedanken zu einer differenzierten Lösung der Nicht-Arier-Frage," suggesting that Jews whose families had lived in Germany since 1799 legally be treated as non-Jews. Letter A. Haushofer to Hess (carbon) of 19 Sept. 1940 answering one of Hess of 10 Sept. concerning possible contact with the Duke of Hamilton; probably the original of Nuremberg document PS-1670. A memorandum on the internal and foreign relations situation of Hungary in the spring of 1940 by Franz Springer, Geschäftsführender Vizepräsident der Vereinigung zwischenstaatlicher Verbände und Einrichtungen. Copies of memoranda also included in HC 832. A carbon of A. Haushofer's letter to his father written in stages, 10-13 Feb. 1938, commenting and reporting on the changes growing out of the Fritsch-Blomberg crisis; most interesting. Text of a secret speech of Goerdeler to the Krupp-Direktorium, about 1937. A proposed "Reichsgliederung" prepared in Nov.-Dec. 1941. A memo "Die Personalpolitik des Auswärtigen Amtes unter dem Einfluss der Auslandsorganisation," 25 January 1938. A memo, Streng vertraulich, Nur zur persönlichen Verfügung des Reichsministers, "Der Personalstand des Auswärtigen Dienstes," 2 March 1938, giving Ribbentrop A. Haushofer's Haushofer's mother was Jewish). Letter Hess to Haushofer, 19 Oct. 1930, giving him suggestions as to what he should say on a forthcoming trip to England. A. Haushofer's dismissal from the Deutsche Informationsstelle, May 1941. A letter about him to General Bodenschatz by Wiedemann before going to San Francisco. Correspondence, 1944, between Reichswohnungskommissar and Ley, possibly not belonging to this file. Some political correspondence, 1922. A wide variety of other items, a number of them dealing with the operations and internal problems of the Volksdeutsche Mittelstelle (on the documents relating to the Hess flight, see Gerhard L. Weinberg, Germany and the Soviet Union, 1939-41, pp. 122-24). See HC 937 c.
